The Rome Roundtable

13 & 14 January, 2017

The Rome Roundtable 13 & 14 January 2017

Program

Venue: Villa Magistrale, Sovereign Order of Malta, on the Aventine Hill, Piazza dei Cavalieri di Malta, 3, 00153, Rome.

Please enter the Villa through the gates facing the Piazza, where our staff will greet and direct you. Please bring with you some form of ID.

To note: Unless otherwise advised, the Chatham House rule will strictly apply (that is, all contributions may be reported outside the meeting, but are not attributable). The Roundtable meeting will be conducted in English. Dress code is lounge suit or equivalent throughout.

Friday 13 January

11:30am Arrival, registration, coffee and informal greetings

12:00noon Opening Plenary Session 1: Welcome and Illumination of Roundtable purpose and conduct

1:00pm Buffet lunch

2:00pm Plenary Session 2: Progress on three issues discussed at our 2016 Rome Roundtable:

Three issues were first discussed at the previous Roundtable. Each represents a complex challenge and an opportunity for cooperation and action in its own right, and is also intended to help us to illustrate a common, higher purpose. Lead participants will introduce each issue, followed by open discussion involving all Roundtable participants.

- ❖ 'Partnerships for better governance: business, church and community'
- ❖ 'Women's economic empowerment'
- ❖ 'Eradicating forced labour from global business supply chains'

4:00pm Coffee break

4:30pm Plenary Session 3: The Sustainable Development Goals and other global commitments – what's been achieved, what's possible?

Lead contributors will form a panel to introduce the topic, followed by open discussion involving all Roundtable participants.

6:30pm Close of meeting, day one.
