

'Mobilising Global Investment Capital For Good – Co-Operative Globalisation In Action'

Wednesday, 3 February 2021*

7:00-9:30pm: Melbourne/Sydney, 4:00-6:30pm: Hong Kong/Beijing,
9:00-11:30am: Paris/Rome, 8:00-10:30am: London, 3:00-5:30am: New York

Note: all times are Sydney time*

Program

7:00pm

Opening: Setting the scene

Mr Steve Howard, Roundtable moderator; Secretary General,
The Global Foundation

Ms Louise Watson, Chairman, The Global Foundation

Dr Mark Cutifani, Chief Executive, Anglo American

*The changing role of global business, in operating with
'purpose' as a core principle.*

7:15pm

Session One: Global views from central bank governors

Dr Daniele Franco, Senior Deputy Governor of the Bank of Italy

The G20 agenda in 2021, under Italy's leadership

Dr Philip Lowe, Governor of the Reserve Bank of Australia

Informal remarks, following his National Press Club address

Moderated roundtable discussion

7:55pm

Session Two: A view from Government

The Hon. Tim Pallas MP, Treasurer Government of Victoria

Melbourne as a global centre of investment capital and decision making

Respondent: Mr Mike Fitzpatrick AO, Director, Infrastructure
Capital Group

Program (Continued)

8:10pm Session Three: Private sector leadership of emerging global themes
Case studies of private sector leadership of investment strategies that also serve the global common good.

Moderator: Ms Sue Kench, Global Chief Executive, King & Wood Mallesons

Speakers:

Mr Jean-Jacques Barbéris, Head of Institutional and Corporate Clients Coverage, Amundi Asset Management

Investing for a fair and just transition to a sustainable future

Dr Steve Waygood, Chief Responsible Investment Officer, Aviva Investors

A new architecture to mobilise global long-term investor capital to address climate change

Dr Jean-Baptiste de Franssu, President, Institute for Religious Works, (Vatican Bank)

'Mensuram Bonam' – a new Vatican framework to guide Catholic Church investments

Mr Barry Irvin AM, Chairman, Bega Cheese

The Bega Valley region leading Australia to a Circular Economy future

Mr Ian Silk, Chief Executive of Australian Super

An Australian perspective on long-term investing

Moderated roundtable discussion assisted by Dr Selena Ng.

9:00pm Session Four: Open Discussion - synthesising ideas for collaboration and action

Moderated by Steve Howard with assistance from Dr Selena Ng

Mr Rob Knott, Chairman, GHD (add photo)

Mr Emilio Gonzalez, Group CEO & Managing Director, Pental Group

Mr Rob Grant, Director, Energy, Fortescue Metals Group

Other participants (maximum 2 minutes each)

9:28pm Closing remarks

Ms Louise Watson, Chairman, The Global Foundation

